FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEHI CITY RESIDENT APPRECIATION DAY SET FOR JULY 24

City Fills Event with Free Activities to Thank Residents for Conserving Water

Lehi, Utah | July 12, 2013 – With the ongoing drought conditions being experienced throughout Utah, Lehi has had its share of stress over water this past month. However, the City is now in a much better position thanks to the conservation efforts by its residents. To thank the residents for all their efforts, the City is holding Resident Appreciation Day and providing free activities, entertainment, and giveaways.

Resident Appreciation Day will replace Lehi's traditional Foam Day for this year only. In early July, the City decided to postpone Foam Day until next year because of the extraordinary amount of water it takes to run the event. The date is still Wednesday, July 24, though the event will now take place at Wines Park from 11:00 – 3:00.

The activities that day will include bounce houses, carnival games, and a bubble machine. Entertainment will be provided by the band Jagertown, and Macey's will be serving free watermelon. Free water bottles will be given away to the first 1,000 people. In addition, boutique vendors will be there selling food and other items.

Lehi City will feature bounce houses and other attractions at Resident Appreciation Day.

The City will also be giving away a number of prizes including day passes to the Legacy Center, and gift certificates for fuel, Macey's, Kohler's, Buffalo Wild Wings, Cabela's, Thanksgiving Point, McDonald's, Domino's, Jack and Jill Bowling, Mias' Italian Ice, the Larry Miller Megaplex Theaters, and the Outlets at Traverse Mountain. The semi-grand prizes are a year-long family pass to Thanksgiving Point and a year-long family pass to the Legacy Center. The grand prize is a 16GB HD Kindle Fire.

The Legacy Center and Outdoor Pool will also be sponsoring a half-price swim day at both the indoor and outdoor pools as another way to say thank-you to residents.

While Foam Day will be missed this year, residents are sure to find plenty of fun activities going on at Resident Appreciation Day.
